The Global Alliance for Public Relations and Communication Management (GAPR CM) was formed in February 1999 to promote an appreciation of the role of public relations and communication in the creation of successful businesses and their sustainable prosperity. The awards The Globus Awards are an international event which seeks to recognize, reward, and acknowledge outstanding work in public relations and communication, across all industries, sectors and professional disciplines. There are three different types of Globus Awards. The Innovator Award recognises pioneering individuals and organizations who have used the principles of public relations and communication to deliver sustainable change. The Executive Award recognizes individuals and organizations who have demonstrated strategic leadership in transforming and promoting the use of public relations and communication in achieving business goals and strategic objectives. The Global Firm Award recognizes an organization that has distinguished itself as a global leader in the use of public relations and communication to achieve its strategic goals. The Globus Awards were presented at the inaugural event in New York on October 26, 2000. In 2010, the Global Alliance 2d92ce491b
