Geoffrey Robert "Geoff" Gifford (born 3 May 1965) is a former Australian cricketer who was inducted into the International Cricket Council Hall of Fame in 2012. Domestic career Gifford played for Victoria during the 1990s, helping the state to its first Sheffield Shield title in 1992–93. As of the 2017–18 season, he holds the record for most Sheffield Shield runs and wickets in a season, and the first five wickets in a final. He also represented New South Wales in the 1994–95 season and Western Australia in the 2001–02 season. On 22 August 2004, Gifford announced his retirement from first-class cricket after not being selected for the Big Bash League that season. On 6 October, Gifford announced that he would retire from all forms of cricket at the end of the 2008–09 season, and he is set to be appointed a cricket mentor for the Victorian team. He holds the record for the most Shield and Shield Fifty
